

Book of Remembrance

YOM KIPPUR 2020 | 5781

יִזְכוֹר

These are the lights that guide us...
These are the ways we remember them.

—Hana Senesh (1921–1944)

THE ART OF MEMORY

The custom of publishing congregational Memory-Books is an ancient one which can be traced back to the early Thirteenth Century. Many of the early examples of such books contain pages which are beautifully illuminated with artistic renderings of sacred Jewish symbols and art forms. This edition of our Memory-Book has been transformed into a keepsake of lasting value which we feel will be a great source of pride to our members.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF YIZKOR

Yizkor was originally a prayer that appears to have its origin in Western Germany. Although the origins of Yizkor and its recitations are unclear, its primary purpose was to commemorate the Jewish martyrs slain during the First and Second crusades. In time, this origin was forgotten, but the warmth and nostalgia of remembrance became part of Jewish ritual.

Few ceremonies in Jewish life are more powerful in meaning than this Memorial Service. It is a time to remember those loved ones who have passed beyond the threshold of life and into the great space of eternity. It is a time to thank God for the lives of our loved ones no longer with us. It is a time to give homage to those who made the world a better place because they lived in it. It is a time to strengthen the bonds between here and the hereafter in the hearts and minds of those who survive their departed:

“The dust returns to the earth as it was, but the spirit returns to the God who gave it.”

"In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them,"

May the Source of Peace send peace to all who mourn and comfort to all who are bereaved here and everywhere. Amen.

Establishing a "Perpetual Yahrzeit" in memory of our loved ones is a time-honored Jewish tradition.

Please contact us for information about creating a "Perpetual Yahrzeit" or for inclusion in next year's Yom Kippur "Book of Remembrance" for those who were dear to you during their lifetime. May they live on through us.

When we ask God to remember the souls of our departed at Yizkor, then, we request more than a mere mental act. We pray implicitly that by focusing on our loved ones' souls, God will take action on their behalf and save them from whatever pain they may be suffering, wherever they may be. At the same time, the implication is that this act of remembrance also constitutes a guarantee of Jewish continuity—well beyond just those we remember, and far beyond us as well. In remembering and in asking for God's remembrance, we request divine help in continuing our people's trajectory beyond ourselves, to achieve the ultimate aims of our people's history.

Yizkor is, in the end, not a prayer for the dead, but a promise by the living.

YIKZOR

יִזְכּוֹר אֱלֹהִים נַשְׁמוֹת יְקִירֵי שְׁהֲלֹכוֹ
לְעוֹלָמָם. נַפְשוֹתֵיהֶם תִּהְיֶינָה צָרוּרוֹת בְּצָרוֹר
הַחַיִּים וְתִהְיֶי מְגֻחָתָם כְּבוֹד. שְׁבַע שְׁמֻחוֹת אֶת—
פָּנֶיךָ, נְעִימוֹת בִּימִינְךָ נִצַּח. אָמֵן

May God remember for ever my dear ones... who have gone to their eternal rest. May they be at one with the One who is life eternal. May the beauty of their lives shine for evermore, and may my life always bring honor to their memory.

יִזְכּוֹר אֱלֹהִים נַשְׁמוֹת כָּל—אֲחֵינוּ בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל
שְׁמָסְרוּ נַפְשָׁם עַל קְדוּשַׁת הַשֵּׁם. נַפְשוֹתֵיהֶם
תִּהְיֶינָה צָרוּרוֹת בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים וְתִהְיֶי מְגֻחָתָם כְּבוֹד.
שְׁבַע שְׁמֻחוֹת אֶת—פָּנֶיךָ, נְעִימוֹת בִּימִינְךָ נִצַּח. אָמֵן

May God remember for ever our brothers and sisters of the House of Israel who gave their lives for the Sanctification of the Divine name. May they be at one with the One who is life eternal. May the beauty of their lives shine for evermore, and may my life always bring honor to their memory.

IN MEMORY OF A PARENT

Your memory, my dear parent, fills my soul at this solemn hour. I remember the days we spent together, in love and friendship. Memories long stored in my mind's eye fill me with tenderness and warmth. Your many acts of goodness while on earth inspire me to a life of virtue. Though you are gone from me, the bonds which unite our souls can never be severed. May God reward you for the faithfulness, love and kindness that you shared with me and others while on earth. May God grant you eternal peace.

IN MEMORY OF A LIFE COMPANION

Dear companion of my life, I remember you in this Yizkor hour. I remember your tender affection while hand in hand we trod the path of our united lives, when your love and companionship were my comfort and your wise counsel and aid were my support. Your memory revives in me the love which sweetened my life. Though death has summoned you, your image still lives and continues to be an inspiration to me. May God keep you safely and grant you peace eternal.

IN MEMORY OF A BROTHER, A SISTER OR A FRIEND

I remember you my beloved brother (sister, friend). I remember the days of our togetherness in happy companionship. Your loving friendship was my delight and support. I think of you with gratitude and bless your memory. Though you are gone, your image abides with me. I am grateful for the love we shared. May God bless you with peace eternal.

IN MEMORY OF A CHILD

I remember you in this solemn Yizkor hour, my beloved child. I remember days when I watched you grow in body, in mind, and in spirit, and I fostered beautiful hopes for your extended future. Though you are now gone from me, in my heart the fond remembrance of your special being can never, ever be dimmed. May God's countenance shine upon you and grant you peace eternal.

MOURNER'S KADDISH

Let the glory of God be extolled, let Your great name be hallowed in the world whose creation You willed. May Your dominion soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen.

Let your great name be blessed for ever and ever.

Let the name of the Holy One, blessed is God, be glorified, exalted, and honored, though You are beyond all the praises, songs, and adoration that we can utter, and let us say: Amen.

For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

The departed whom we remember have entered into the peace of life eternal. They still live on earth in the acts of goodness they performed and in our hearts as we cherish the memory of their unfinished lives. May the beauty of their lives abide among us as a loving benediction. May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved, here and everywhere. And let us say as one family of families: Amen.

Yahrzeit Light Ceremony

It is tradition to light a yahrzeit candle on
The anniversary of death
The eve of Yom Kippur (Kol Nidre)
The night of Shemini Atzeret
The last night of Passover
The night of Shavuot

At this moment, in memory of our beloved _____, we join in love and remembrance. A link has been broken in the chain of life that bound us together, yet the bonds of home and love still hold us close each to the other.

We give thanks for the blessing of life, companionship and memory. We are grateful for the strength and faith that sustained us in the hour of bereavement. Though sorrow lingers, we have learned that love can be stronger than death. Though our loved one is beyond our sight we do not despair, for we sense our beloved in our hearts and in our lives. Ours is now the task to allow our loved ones to live on through our words and our prayers, our deeds and our hopes. Their legacy is a loving blessing.

(At this point, it is appropriate to recite a passage from the Bible or Prayerbook or a poem which was a favorite of the departed, or to recall personal characteristics and precious incidents in his or her life.)

As _____ lives again for us in the light we now kindle, we light this Yahrzeit Light and sanctify it in the remembrance of the Divine word: "The spirit of each person is the light of God."

"Zecher Tzadik Liv'racha." — "The memory of the righteous is a continuing blessing." May the brightness of our memories illumine our hearts, our souls and our lives. May _____'s presence be felt in all we do. Amen.

SHAAREY PARDES ACCABONAC GROVE CEMETERY

Set on a nine-acre site at 306 Old Stone Highway, Shaarey Pardes Accabonac Grove Cemetery provides a beautiful and serene final resting place for members of the Jewish Center of the Hamptons and their families. The park-like, natural surrounds are both majestic and comforting. Designed by renowned American architect Norman Jaffe in 1991, the cemetery is well-maintained and minimalist. With only foot stones capped at an inch high — sections snake their way through a forest of lush trees, forming a sea anemone-like pattern. Shaarey Pardes Accabonac Grove Cemetery is a place of ultimate peace, open to the world of the spirit and the physical world around us.

For more information on membership and our cemetery, please contact the Jewish Center office at 631-324-9858.
