OPENING REMARKS

Rabbi Josh Franklin ★ Cantor Debra Stein, Rabbi

אֲשֵׁרִי הַגִּפְרוֹר שֶׁנִּשְׂרַף וְהֵצִית לְהַבּוֹת
אֲשֵׁרִי הַלְּהֵבָה שֶׁבְּעֵרָה בְּסִתְרֵי לְבָבוֹת
אֲשֵׁרִי הַלְּבָבוֹת שֶׁיִּדְעוּ לְחַדֵּל בְּכָבוֹד
אֲשֵׁרִי הַגִּפְרוֹר שֶׁנִּשְׂרַף וְהֵצִית לְהַבּוֹת

Blessed is the match consumed in kindling flame.

Blessed is the flame that softly burns in the heart's secret places.

Blessed is the heart with strength to stop its beating for honor's sake

Blessed is the match consumed in kindling flame.

RESPONSIVE READING:

God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel, and Leah, on this day of Remembrance, we recall Your promise to bless all the families of the earth.

We praise and thank You for the fulfillment of that promise, for the incalculable contributions that have been made in human history.
Blessed is the name of the Eternal One

“And I will bless them that bless you and curse him that curse you and in you shall all families of the earth be blessed.

When God gave the Torah, no bird sang and no fowl flew,
no ox bellowed, no angel stirred a wing.

The Seraphim did not say, “Holy, Holy, Holy”

the sea did not roar and no creature spoke.

The whole world stood hushed in breathless silence and the voice went forth and proclaimed, “I am Adonai your God.”

Six Million Candles, dear as the memory of every one of our martyred dead is to us.

Let us then light six candles,
one for each million.

Let the light of these candles signify that we remember – that we shall never forget.

Their memory shall burn bright throughout all times.

The Season of our freedom.

As long as we live, they too will live:
For they are now six million parts of us and we remember them.

“Look how a single candle can both defy light and define light.”

– Anne Frank

“There is nothing we can do but wait as calmly as we can till the misery comes to an end.
Jews and Christians wait, the whole world waits: and there are many who wait for death.”

– Anne Frank

SIX CANDLES FOR SIX MILLION LIVES
SIX MILLION JEWS

ONE CANDLE FOR THOSE WHO DIED ON OCTOBER 7TH

We light the 1st candle in memory of the helpless infants, children, and teenagers cut down like young trees before their time.

YIZKOR... YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

We light the 2nd candle in memory of the mothers who died with their children in their arms.

YIZKOR... YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

We light the 3rd candle in memory of the fathers and mothers cruelly separated from their families

YIZKOR... YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

We light the 4th candle in memory of the political activists, scholars, teachers, and clergy who were the first to be taken.

YIZKOR... YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

We light the 5th candle in memory of the Jewish men and women who fled to the forests and who lived to fight the Nazis.

YIZKOR... YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

We light the 6th candle in memory of the martyrs whose lives were given that others might live.

YIZKOR... YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

We light this final candle for the 1200 people who died on October 7th in Israel.

RESPONSIVE READING:

“I hear the approaching thunder that, one day, will destroy us too. I feel the suffering of millions. And yet, when I look up at the sky, I somehow feel that this cruelty too shall end, that peace and tranquility will return once more.” Anne Frank (A.F.)

Then nation will not threaten nation, and humankind will not know war again.

“Human greatness does not lie in wealth or power, but in character and goodness.” A.F.

We have come into being to love Adonai our God with all our hearts, with all our souls, and with all our might.

“How noble and good everyone could be if, at the end of each day, they were to review their own behavior and weigh up the rights and wrongs.” A.F.

Fulfill the promise: I will bring peace to the land, and you shall lie down and no one shall terrify you.

Who has inflicted this on us? Who set us apart from all the rest? Who has put us through such suffering? It’s God who has made us the way we are, but it’s also God who will lift us up again.” A.F.

Let love and justice flow like a mighty stream.

“Where there’s hope, there’s life. It fills us with fresh courage and makes us strong again.” A.F.

And let us say: Amen.

“Six million men, women, and children murdered. The bloodiest stain on mankind in recorded history.”

– James Durfee/Joan Kraisky

אָנִי מֵאֲמִין בְּאַמוּנָה שְׁלֵמָה בְּבִיאַת
הַמָּשִׁיחַ וְאֶף עַל פִּי שְׂפִיתֵי מַהֲמָה עִם
כָּל זֶה אֶחָפֵּה לוֹ בְּכָל יוֹם שְׂיָבוֹא

I believe with complete faith in the coming of the Messiah and even though he may tarry, nevertheless, I yearn every day for his coming.

“It is a major shock and outrage to realize that our present generation of children are growing up with little or no knowledge of Anne Frank and her legacy of courage and heroism.”

– Michael Knigin

אל מלא רחמים שוכן במרומים. המציא מנוחה נכונה תחת
כנפי השכינה, במעלות קדושים וטהורים, כזקר הרקיע מזהירים, את
נשמות שישה-מליון אחינו ואחיותינו שנהרגו על קדוש השם. בעל
הרחמים יסתירם בסתר כנפיו לעולמים, ויצרור בצרור החיים את
נשמתם. יי הוא נחלתם, וינוחו בשלום על משפכם. ונמר, אמן.

Fully compassionate God on high: To our six million brothers and sisters murdered because they were Jews, grant clear and certain rest with You in the lofty heights of the sacred and pure whose brightness shines like the very glow of heaven.

*Source of mercy: Forever enfold them in the embrace of Your wings; secure their souls in eternity. Adonai: they are Yours.
They will rest in peace. Amen*

Meditation

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer
we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart
we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us as we remember them.

They have left their lives to us:

Let a million prayers rise whenever Jews worship;
Let a million candles glow against the darkness of these unfinished lives.

Second Generation Pledge

We are the first generation born after the darkness.

We dedicate the pledge to our parents who suffered and survived;
We dedicate this pledge to our grandparents, to all the aunts and uncles, all the sisters and brothers, all the friends and loved ones lost, but never forgotten.

We dedicate this pledge to the brave ones who fought and the righteous who never yielded their principles.

We pledge to remember!
We pledge to teach our children and their children to forever preserve the Jewish spirit which could not be destroyed.

We pledge to honor the memories of those whose voices were silenced by telling their stories to the world.

We pledge to fight anti-Semitism and all forms of racial hatred by our dedication to freedom and social justice.

We affirm our commitment to the State of Israel and to the furtherance of Jewish life in America.

We are your children; We are here.

Yom HaShoah Service

Sunday, April 27 | 11:30am Service

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER RACHEL STERN

Every year, Jewish Center of the Hamptons joins with congregations around the world to commemorate Yom HaShoah. We began many years ago joining with B'nai B'rith International in a ceremony of reading the names of those who perished in the Shoah. In its inception, it was brought to us by one of our congregants, Sam Latner z"l. The next chairperson was Dr. Alan York z"l and after his death Charlotte Sasso took over as chairperson of this very important ceremony.

May their memories forever be for a blessing

About Rachel Stern

Rachel is the founding director of the Fritz Ascher Society for Persecuted, Ostracized and Banned Art in New York. Born and educated in Germany, she emigrated to the US in 1994, wrote for AUFBAU and worked for ten years in the Department of Drawings and Prints at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. She has organized numerous art exhibitions and has written extensively about art. In 2016, she published the first book about the artist Fritz Ascher, To Live is to Blaze with Passion: The Expressionist Fritz Ascher and most recently co-edited with Ori Z Soltes "Welcoming the Stranger. Abrahamic Traditions and Its Contemporary Implications" (New York: Fordham University Press 2024). Stern serves on the board of the Jewish Art Salon and the Fritz Ascher Foundation at the Museum of the City of Berlin. Among others, she has served on the jury of the Congressional Art Competition New York, the Hans and Lea Grundig Prize, and as a panelist for the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs.
